

FRIENDS OF THE KICKAPOO VALLEY RESERVE
FOURTH ANNUAL

Earth Day Poetry Contest!

Submit any type of poem related to the theme
Nature in Flight

Open to Youth in Grades 3-8

Participation Ribbons to all entrants

Poets of Merit selected in each age group

Winning poems will be read during the KVR Spring Fling
Saturday, April 27 and posted on the KVR Friends website

2019 Earth Day Poetry Contest

Friends of the Kickapoo Valley Reserve invite all students from grades 3-8 to enter an Earth Day Poetry Contest. Any type of poem related to the theme 'Nature in Flight' is acceptable. Entries must be on 8.5" x 11" or 9" x 18" paper. A panel of judges will select Poets of Merit in each of these age groups: grades 3-4, grades 5-6, and grades 7-8. The judging team will look for vivid language, the application of the theme, and writing conventions (spelling and grammar).

Entries should be at the Reserve by 4:30 pm, Friday, April 12. Please include your name, grade, teacher, school and school address, and phone contact on the back of your entry. (Homeschoolers please list your home address.)

Deliver entries to: Kickapoo Valley Reserve,
S3661 State Hwy 131, La Farge, WI 54639

